CATHEDRAL MEMORIAL GARDENS

THE SANCTUARY OF PRAISE
The Sanctuary of Praise offers exquisite Stained Glass Niches. In the left bank of niches, the cross of Christ is in the foreground symbolic of Christ being central to the life of a Christian. The two crosses on the right remind us that Christ sacrificed Himself for the redemption of sinners. Flowers are symbolic of new life made possible by the death and resurrection of Christ. The stars surrounding the cross represent all of creation and the promise of new life through Christ.

CHRIST CATHEDRAL MUSIC MINISTRY

Since becoming Christ Cathedral Parish, we continue to learn what being a cathedral parish means. The cathedral church, as the bishop’s church, is linked to the diocese in a unique way. While serving the parishioners within the territorial parish, the cathedral church also serves the larger diocese. The other parishes of a diocese, while connected to the diocese and the bishop, operate with a certain individuality that the cathedral parish does not.

The worship life of the parish is profoundly affected by being the cathedral church. In addition to the parish liturgies, the cathedral is also the place for major diocesan liturgies, celebrations related to various Church organizations and at times, even civil ceremonies. The liturgical and specifically music ministry of Christ Cathedral Parish has grown substantially over the years. A remarkable job has been done in fostering music ministries that have appropriately served the growing diversity of the parish and the increasing number of parishioners. Developing a music ministry that adequately serves the needs of a cathedral church is a huge undertaking that needs to start well before our renovated cathedral church opens. Bishop Vann will soon announce the appointment of the first ever Christ Cathedral Director of Music Ministries. The director’s responsibilities will include oversight of the entire music ministry of the parish in English, Spanish and Vietnamese. He will also manage the musical component of all the diocesan liturgies, as well as administer the cathedral cultural music program such as concerts, recitals and special productions.

The new director will also direct the English speaking choir which currently sings at the 9:30 a.m. Mass. We are extremely grateful to Pat O’Tero who will conclude as choir director on November 22, 2015, at the 9:30 a.m. Mass. We will honor her and have a special reception for her after the Mass. The choir will take a break until the new director arrives in January. We are thankful to all who so faithfully serve in the music ministry of the parish. We look forward to their continued participation as we continue our development as Christ Cathedral.

Together in faith,

Fr. Tay Ha Nguyen, Vice-Rector
Fr. Christopher Smith, Pastor

CATHEDRAL NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Stewardship Renewal

How can I better steward my gifts?

▸ Reflect gratefully on your unique gifts, and prayerfully decide how to use them in a way pleasing to God.
▸ Make a deliberate plan for sharing your gifts with others, putting God first. “Honor the Lord with the first fruits of all you produce.” Proverbs 11:24
▸ Renew your plan each year reflecting on any change of life circumstances.
▸ Respond to God’s love in proportion to how you have been blessed. “Return to God according to the measure you have received.” Luke 6:38
▸ Make a sacrificial gift, a gift made “sacred” by using them in ways that change the lifestyle of the giver as well as the life of the recipient. “Do not neglect good deeds and generosity. God is pleased by sacrifice of that kind.” Hebrews 13:1

Thank you to all our parishioners who made their treasure commitment last weekend. If you have not yet made your commitment you still can. You can drop your commitment card in the Sunday offering basket or at the parish reception desk.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER
God my Creator, you made me all that I am and gave me all that I have. Help me show my gratitude by using these gifts to serve others in your name.

Jesus my Redeemer, you taught me the way to eternal life by your example of loving service to others. Grant me the courage to respond to your call to Discipleship by following in your footsteps.

Holy Spirit of God, be with me as I choose each day to put you first in my life. Let me be a model of Christian Stewardship so others will come to know you through my actions.

I pray, dear Lord, that you open the minds and hearts of all the men, women and young people of our parish, that we may joyfully accept your challenge to be good stewards.

Amen.

MATTER OF LIFE AND DEATH, NOT DOLLARS AND CENTS

By: Ashton Ellis, OC Catholic

Proponents of California’s new assisted suicide law tout it as a way to ensure individual dignity in the final days of life. That may be their intention, but they’re overlooking the dangers that could result when a legalized suicide regime intersects with a cash-strapped state budget.

In his proclamation creating a special legislative session on health care financing earlier this year, Governor Jerry Brown was clear: He wanted the legislature to stabilize and restore funding for Medi-Cal, the state’s Medicaid program. But if that was the mandate, how did the session end up producing a bill allowing doctors to help Californians end their own lives?

It may sound like a non-sequitur, but the chilling reality is that – whether lawmakers intended it or not – there is a serious prospect that assisted suicide will come to be used as a cost-cutting measure for state government.

Take, for example, the very real possibility that Medi-Cal will offer assisted suicide as a covered treatment option for terminally ill enrollees. That’s what’s happened under Oregon’s Medicaid plan – and the state has already been caught informing a cancer patient that it would pay for assisted suicide drugs, but not for doctor-recommended chemotherapy. A report in the Los Angeles Times indicates why: “The barbiturates prescribed to patients to end their lives cost about $1,500,” it says. “Average healthcare spending in a patient’s last year of life is $33,486, according to federal data.”

This prospect is especially menacing for Medi-Cal enrollees who are eligible for hospice care. Qualifying for hospice requires a doctor to deem a person as having six months or less to live – the same timeframe that allows eligibility for assisted suicide. Even under the most conservative estimates (putting aside, for instance, the escalating costs associated with the final months of life), six months’ worth of hospice care would run to about $15,000 – 10 times the cost of life-ending drugs.

Since 2013, the year California expanded Medi-Cal eligibility under the Affordable Care Act, spending on the program has ballooned 74%, now reaching more than $91 billion annually. While Washington will cover 100% of the increased cost for the first few years, the federal government will begin scaling back its commitment in 2017, leaving states to figure out how to fill the gap. When California starts feeling that pinch, the state will be looking for savings wherever it can find them. In a world where taking your own life is just another medical decision, is it so outlandish to imagine that Medi-Cal will be unwilling to pay a premium to keep recipients alive?

Make no mistake; the fact that assisted suicide became law in a session ostensibly dedicated to shoring up Medicaid financing is a tacit admission that lawmakers see a connection between saving money and hastening death. That became even clearer when, only a week after signing assisted suicide into law, Governor Brown vetoed a so-called “right-to-try” bill allowing terminally ill patients access to experimental drugs that could potentially help them live longer. Going forward, California’s terminally ill have the right to die, but not the right to try.

A backlash is already forming. On October 20, a group opposing assisted suicide received permission from the California Secretary of State’s office to collect signatures for a ballot proposition to overturn the new law. In order to qualify the initiative for next year’s election they must submit 365,800 signatures by January 4. As Stephanie Packer, a terminally ill mother of four leading the effort, told the press, “Those confronting their most difficult days should be treated with compassion, understanding and support. Our medical response should not be to encourage them to end their lives prematurely.”
NUNS, SISTERS AND THE CALL TO SERVICE

By Cathi Douglas, OC Catholic

For Catholic women, determining a vocation means knowing the facts

While it’s common to use the terms “nun” and “sister” interchangeably – and the title of “Sister” is used to address both of these individuals – nuns and sisters lead different lives. A nun is a religious woman who lives a contemplative and cloistered life of meditation and prayer for the salvation of others, while a religious sister lives an active vocation of both prayer and service, often to the needy, ill, poor or uneducated.

“Vocations are given by God,” says Sister Eymard Flood, the Vicar for Consecrated life for the Diocese of Orange. “Some women are called to active service, some to contemplative life.”

Cloistered and open convents serve differently

“Enclosed” is the preferred term (rather than “cloistered”) in reference to religious orders of men and women, explains Sister Eymard. In enclosed religious communities, nuns typically observe vows of poverty, chastity and obedience in addition to permanency. Nuns may decide to dedicate their lives to serving all other living beings, or might be ascetics who voluntarily choose to leave mainstream society and live lives of prayer and contemplation in a monastery or convent.

Women called to contemplative life do more than pray, Sister Eymard explains, but may take on work that comes from outside their convents. Still, nuns are not permitted to leave the convent to run to the store or go to the theater.

In contrast, the sisters most known within the Diocese of Orange are those who teach at many Catholic schools, minister at hospitals and serve in charitable ministries – like the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Orange.

Their history began in 1912 when Mother Bernard Gosselin and eight sisters moved from LaGrange, Ill., to serve in the Sacramento diocese. The sisters built a motherhouse in Eureka, then many schools and their first hospital in Orange.

Determining a vocation and deciding on an order

Women interested in religious ministry should pray, think about and fully research the kind of life they are called to lead, advises “A Guide to Religious Ministries for Catholic Men and Women,” a 2009 book that lists the nation’s religious communities. “Learn about the particular organization or denomination in which you anticipate pursuing a career.”

Talking with trusted friends, family members and spiritual advisers can help.

Once she identifies her desired order, a woman called to religious life undergoes the process called discernment in which she works with the congregation’s vocations director. During the discernment process, she experiences the order’s culture, receives spiritual direction and may live in the convent for a period of time.

“The discernment process can be different for each ministry and each candidate,” Sister Eymard says. “It depends on the woman’s background, education and age or if she has been married before.” Once she and the order agree that she can join, it may be seven to 10 years before she takes her final vows.

While religious life certainly isn’t for everyone, many women continue to be called to be nuns and sisters in open and enclosed congregations, Sister Eymard says. “There will always be a place in the Church for consecrated men and women,” she says. “As long as there is an opportunity for ministry, people will be committed for life.”
MENSAJE DE NUESTRO RECTOR
MINISTERIO DE MÚSICA DE LA CATEDRAL DE CRISTO

Desde que nos convertimos en la Parroquia de la Catedral de Cristo, continuamos aprendiendo lo que es ser una parroquia de la catedral. La iglesia de la catedral, como la iglesia del obispo, está unida a la diócesis de una manera única. Mientras servimos a los feligreses dentro del territorio parroquial, la iglesia de la catedral también sirve a la diócesis aún más grande. Las otras parroquias de la diócesis, aunque conectadas a la diócesis y al obispo, operan con cierta individualidad que la parroquia de la catedral no hace.

La vida devocional de la parroquia es profundamente afectada al ser la iglesia de la catedral. A demás de las liturgias parroquiales, la catedral también es el lugar de liturgias diocesanas importantes, celebraciones relacionadas a varias organizaciones de la Iglesia y a veces, hasta ceremonias civiles. El ministerio litúrgico y específicamente el de música de la Parroquia de la Catedral de Cristo, ha crecido considerablemente durante los años. Un trabajo notable se ha hecho al fomentar de los ministerios musicales que han servido apropiadamente a la creciente diversidad de la parroquia y el aumento de feligreses.

Desarrollar un ministerio de música que sirva adecuadamente las necesidades de una iglesia de la catedral es un compromiso inmenso, el cual necesita comenzarse mucho antes de la apertura de la iglesia renovada de la catedral. El Obispo Vann pronto anunciara el nombramiento del primer Director del Ministerio de Música de la Catedral de Cristo. Las responsabilidades del director incluirá la supervisión de todo el ministerio de música de la parroquia en Inglés, Español y Vietnamita. El también va a dirigir el componente musical de todas las liturgias diocesanas, además de administrar el programa cultural de música de la catedral tal como conciertos, recitales y producciones especiales. El nuevo director también va a dirigir el coro en Inglés que actualmente canta durante la Misa de las 9:30 a.m. Le estamos sumamente agradecidos a Pat O’Ter o quien va a concluir como directora del coro el 22 de Noviembre, 2015, en la Misa de las 9:30 a.m. La vamos a honrar con una recepción especial después de la Misa. El coro descansara hasta que llegue el nuevo director en Enero. Les estamos agradecidos a todos los que fielmente sirvieron en el ministerio de música de la parroquia. Esperamos continúen con su participación mientras continuamos nuestro desarrollo como la Catedral de Cristo.

Unidos en la fe,

F. Christopher Smith, Rector

BAN THANH NHẠC NHÀ THỔ CHÍNH TÒA CHÚA KITÔ

Từ khi trở thành giáo xứ Nhà thờ Chánh tòa Chúa Kitô, chúng ta không ngừng tìm hiểu ý nghĩa của một giáo xứ chính tòa. Nhà thờ chính tòa, tức nhà thờ của đức giám mục, có mối liên hệ đặc biệt với giáo phận. Ngoài việc phục vụ giáo dân trong lãnh thổ giáo xứ, nhà thờ chính tòa còn phục vụ giáo dân toàn giáo phận. Các giáo xứ khác của giáo phận, khi liên kết với giáo phận và được giám mục, hoat động với một tinh thần cá thể nhất định mà giáo xứ chính tòa không có.

Việc trở thành nhà thờ chính tòa có ảnh hưởng sâu sắc đối với nội đông thờ phượng của giáo xứ. Ngoài việc cưu nhận phùng vụ thuộc giáo xứ, nhà thờ chính tòa còn là nơi cưu nhận những phungs vụ của giáo phận, những lễ mừng liễn quan đến các tế chức trong Giáo Hội, và có khi còn tế chức những nghi thức dân sự. Ban Phục vụ, đặc biệt thành nhạc, của Giáo Xứ Chánh tòa Chúa Kitô đã phát triển đáng kể trong những năm qua. Một chức danh đã được đặt ra nhằm giúp cho những hoạt động của ban thành nhạc được thuận lợi, đáp ứng sự phát triển về tinh thần đa dạng của giáo xứ và sở giáo dân ngày càng tăng thêm.

Phát triển ban thành nhạc nhằm phục vụ một cách thích đáng những nhu cầu của nhà thờ chính tòa là một công việc lớn lao cần được khởi sự thật từ trước khi khanh thành ngồi nhà thờ chính tòa đã được trúng tu. Độc concrete và sớm ra thông báo việc bổ nhiệm vị Trưởng Ban Thành nhạc tiên khởi của Nhà thờ Chúa Kitô. Trách nhiệm của vị Trưởng ban sẽ bao gồm việc thông coi tất cả các ban Thành nhạc của giáo xứ thuộc các công đồng ngư của Anh, Tạy Ban Nhà và Việt Nam. Vị Trưởng ban sẽ đảm trách phần thành nhạc của tất cả các chức phุง vụ cấp giáo phận, cùng như quản lý chương trình âm nhạc mang tính chất văn hóa, như những buổi hòa nhạc, triển diễn âm nhạc và những chương trình đặc biệt.

Vị trống trưởng ban cùng sẽ trực tiếp phụ trách ca đoàn Anh ngữ hiện đang hoạt động từ 9:30 a.m. Chúng ta hết lòng biết ơn phút Otero sẽ kết thúc nhiệm vụ trưởng ca đoàn vào ngày 22 tháng Tư năm 2018, trong Thánh lễ 9:30 a.m. Chúng ta sẽ tổ chức tọ quay đổi với bà và có buổi tiệc tân đắc biết dành cho bà sau Thánh lễ. Ca đoàn sẽ nghỉ đến khi có vị trưởng ca đoàn mới vào tháng Giêng. Chúng tôi xin hết lòng cảm ơn tất cả quý vị đã bén bi phục vụ trong ban thành nhạc giáo xứ. Chúng tôi mong quý vị sẽ tiếp tục tham gia vì sự phát triển không ngừng của Nhà thờ Chánh tỏa Chúa Kitô của chúng ta.

LEARNING BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

By Karen Meeks, OC Catholic

When excitement began building over the latest “Avengers” film, educators at Christ Cathedral Academy in Garden Grove used the opportunity for another lesson in faith.

They asked students: “How do you become ‘The Avenger’ of your faith?”

It’s something that still resonates with her students, says Debbie Vallas, Senior Administrator at Christ Cathedral Academy.

“We’re not speaking from the Roman times or archaic times,” Vallas says. “We’re teaching them how to relate this to everyday life. You love ‘Star Wars.’ Well, what is ‘The Force’ about? It’s about good. The darkness is about evil. Everyone loves the ‘Avengers’ and superheroes. It’s taking the symbolic things in life and equating that to your faith.”

For the Catholic schools of the Diocese of Orange, teaching the centrality of faith to its 15,000 students extends beyond religion classes.

“You don’t just teach faith. You live faith,” says Greg Dhuyvetter, Superintendent of Schools. “The faith experience is not a single thing but a 360-degree experience.”

While each grade level has a designated religion class, the Catholic faith is woven throughout the curriculum, from language arts and science to math and social studies, where social justice issues are addressed.

Classroom prayer is practiced regularly, spiritual retreats are offered and daily classes are covered in a way that is fundamentally favorable to the faith, Dhuyvetter says.

“There is a constant effort to guide students within the philosophy and understanding of our Catholic faith. It’s not one thing. It’s everything,” he says.

Faith-based teaching has to extend to teachers, administrators and especially parents, says Sally Todd, Associate Superintendent of Schools.

“Faith formation begins at home,” Todd says, adding that the religious textbook series being used at schools include a strong parental component that encourages the discussion of faith with their children.

“We can’t do it without the parents,” Todd says. “We can only do so much and the stronger the faith is at home, the stronger the enhancement will be internalized with students.”

“Technology is our new window to catechesis,” Todd says. “All of those things make our faith real in schools and within our students.”

Vallas agrees. “The Church responds to the people of today,” she says. “We are always finding ways to bring our curriculum and make it alive in who we are today. We try to give them that ‘live faith experience’ every day. Faith is a 24/7 thing.”

“We want to mold the Catholic leaders of our future, the people who will be in the front of our Church, whether they be in ordained ministry or lay leadership,” he says. “We want them to have the tools, the spirit of service and the true dedication to their faith that will make them the leaders going forward. And of course we want them to lead lives of goodness and reach their heavenly reward.”

The spiritual and temporal efforts to make the Christ Cathedral campus the true center of the Diocese of Orange are aimed at building a deeper unity of purpose and mission among Catholics within our local Church and a renewed commitment to permeating the world with the love of Christ.

Flowing from the Eucharist, the source and summit of Catholic belief and practice, the Christ Cathedral campus intends to be place of outreach to the materially poor and marginalized, catechesis, evangelization, ecumenical dialogue, interreligious cooperation and theological discourse.

In the spirit of Christ, we welcome all people to come to be renewed in spirit and truly know that they are loved by God. In addition to activities of the cathedral parish, diocese, parishes of the diocese, Catholic schools and Catholic organizations, the Christ Cathedral campus is a gathering place for cultural, civic and social events.

Los esfuerzos espirituales y materiales, para hacer del campus de la Catedral de Cristo el centro verdadero de la Diócesis de Orange, tienen como finalidad la construcción de una profunda unidad de propósito y misión entre los católicos que hacen parte de nuestra iglesia local y un compromiso renovado para permear el mundo con el amor de Cristo.

A partir de la Eucaristía, fuente y culmen de la fe y de la practica católica, el campus de la Catedral de Cristo quiere ser un lugar de encuentro y de servicio al materialmente pobre y al marginado; un lugar de catequesis, de evangelización; un lugar de diálogo ecuménico, de cooperación interreligiosa y discurso teológico.

En el espíritu de Cristo, damos la bienvenida e invitamos a todas las personas a que vengan a ser renovadas en el espíritu y conocer realmente que son amadas por Dios. Además de las actividades de la parroquia Catedral, de la Diócesis, de las parroquias de la diócesis, de las escuelas católicas y organizaciones católicas, el campus de la Catedral de Cristo es un lugar de reunión para eventos culturales, cívicos y sociales.

Những nỗ lực tinh thần và tạm thời để biến khuôn viên Nhà Thờ Chánh Tòa Chúa Kitô trở thành trung tâm của Giáo Phận Orange nhằm tới việc xây dựng một mục đích và sự mến hiếp thống sầu đậm hon giữa những người Công Giáo trong giáo hội địa phương và một quyết tâm mới gieo trồng vào thế giới tình yêu của Chúa Kitô.

Tuôn chảy từ Bí Tích Thánh Thể, nguồn sống và tuyệt đỉnh của đức tin và hành động Công Giáo, khuôn viên Nhà Thờ Chánh Tòa Chúa Kitô dự tính trở thành nơi dành cho việc phục vụ những anh chị em nghèo vật chất và sống bên lề xã hội, cho các giáo lý viên, cho việc truyền giáo, những cuộc đối thoại liên tôn, và những sinh hoạt chung của các tôn giáo và những khóa học thần học.

Trong tinh thần của Chúa Kitô, chúng tôi chào đón tất cả mọi người đến để được đối mặt tinh thần và thực sự cảm nhận rằng chúng ta được Thiên Chúa yêu thương. Thêm vào những sinh hoạt của giáo xứ chăm sóc các giáo dân, và các giáo xứ trong giáo phận, các trường Công Giáo, các tổ chức Công Giáo, khuôn viên Nhà Thờ Chánh Tòa Chúa Kitô sẽ là nơi qui tụ những sinh hoạt văn hóa, dân sự, và xã hội nữa.
